

The British Institute of Organ Studies

Reg Charity No. 283936

The organ in

Stamperland Parish Church Clarkston, Glasgow

has been awarded a certificate Grade II****

A significant, surviving example of Lewis and Co's late 19th century output to a design of Alfred Hollins and retaining the original patent combination key-touches.

It is therefore listed in the Institute's Register of Historic Pipe Organs as being an instrument of importance to the national heritage and one deserving careful preservation for the benefit of future generations.

Alan Thurlow

Chairman

Melvin Hughes

Secretary

21 January 2017

This certificate is held in trust for the British Institute of Organ Studies while ever this instrument is maintained in a manner consistent with its historical significance.